

How To See Plants

by Christophe de la Fontaine

How to See Plants is a family of vases made out of fine porcelain produced in collaboration with Rosenthal. The exposed grid reflects the architectural structure, providing enough support to minimize the material quantity and resulting in a geometric pattern of light and shadow.

HOW TO SEE PLANTS - CHRISTOPHE DE LA FONTAINE - VASE

MATERIAL

Porcelain by Rosenthal

COLOURS

Porcelain

white

DIMENSIONS

